1.0 Policy

The Office of the Chief of Staff is directly responsible to the General Superintendent, will provide leadership, coordination, and support for strengthening of school and community relations throughout the District.

Each school is responsible for establishing and maintaining a parent and community organization that is open to all parents and residents of the school attendance area. This organization established procedures and/or guidelines for handling complaints, concerns, and recommendations from parents and other members of the community that are all applicable laws.
