1.0 Policy

The policies contained herein, and all rules and procedures promulgated to support these policies are established in support of the District's vision, mission and goals.

1.1 VISION

The Detroit Public Schools will be a competitive leader in academic achievement through the use of continuous improvement strategies so that Detroit Public Schools are the first choice for residents and eligible non-residents.

1.2 MISSION

To develop a customer and data driven, student-centered learning environment in which students are motivated to become productive citizens and life long learners, equipped with skills to meet the needs of their next customer, be it higher education or the world of work.

1.3 GOALS

- Improve Student Achievement
- Create clean and safe school environments
- Enhance parent and community involvement
- Transform the District into an effective and efficient organization
